Make jewellery like the Pros

Woolly Warmers

Learn to knit with experienced teacher Aneeta Patel. Her new book Knitty Gritty (£14.99, A&C Black) includes basic techniques, such as casting on, increasing and decreasing, plus how to salvage dropped stitches. In 2006 Aneeta founded Knitting SOS, which offers free advice to knitters in a knot, so she is well used to breaking down patterns into simple steps. With mittens, hats, bags and wraps there is bound to be something to encourage and delight newbies and experienced crafters alike.

Think Pink

October is Breast Cancer Awareness month and what better way for crafters to get involved than baking yummy cookies. This set of five star shaped cookie cutters, £8, comes with a stylish retro tin in the trademark pink. Why not have a charity sale to raise money for such a special cause. For more Breast Cancer gifts and goodies, call 01227 811642 or visit www.breastcancercare.org.uk/shop.

Stick n Mix

For card making, papercraft ideas and inspiration, check out the new Doodle Design Sticker book from Starform. It's full of great suggestions and motifs for special occasions. There's even some Christmas themes if you want to make a head start on this year's festivities. Outline stickers are brilliant for embellishing and creating stylish decoupage effects. The book also has a fab selection of techniques to show you how it's done. Call 01252 377677, or visit www.art-of-craft.co.uk.

Giveaway

Win one of ten books plus sticker sheets, worth £3.25 each. Tick Doodle on the coupon.

Meet & Greet

Social networking is taking the web by storm and everyone's getting involved, and now there's a special place just for crafters! Through the online community at busymitts, members can write a blog, upload pictures and show off their latest projects, techniques and ideas with fellow enthusiasts. It's the perfect opportunity to share knowledge and expertise on your favourite hobby. So go to www.busymitts.com to sign up and get started on your profile.

Out & About

Angel Delight

Enjoy 48 hours dedicated to scrapbooking in the comfort of Crewe's four star Whychwood Park Hotel. Organised by Luxurious Angels, scrappers can craft to their heart's content with workshops, projects and products from some of the top names in the industry. Each guest will receive a goody bag to take away. Don't miss the spa facilities, plus fine dining in the world renowned restaurant. The break runs from October 10-12 and costs £260. For more details, call 07799 776557 or visit www.luxuriousangels.co.uk.

Over Load

Crafter's north of the border will be thrilled to have two fabulous shows at one amazing venue. Hobbycrafts and Crafts for Scotland will both be at the SECC Glasgow between October 23-26. Not only will there be hundreds of top names demonstrating the latest products and techniques, don't miss the vast array of gorgeous handmade gifts and goodies. Doors open at 9.30am, tickets cost £5.10. Call 01425 277988 or visit www.ichf.com.
